

Tides

You can tell when Tides has washed over a dancefloor – the Argentina-born, Spain-based DJ and producer, found closing out volume 7 of Clarisse's EP series with his classy track 'Balsamic', turns his experience of growing up to the rhythms of old skool hip-hop and broad sounds across the decades as a 90s baby, into waves of house music that connect the dots and hit the spot.

Tides has come into his prime with live appearances across the country alongside Manu Fuentes, Kiko Navarro, Claudia Tejada, Disaia, Paul Darey, and Aida Blanco, as well as Clarisse alumni Daniel Orpi and Juanito. Topped with a residency at Mallorca's world famous BCM, where you can normally see him rocking the crowd as well as some stylish headwear, Tides has continued to make himself known at the best spots the Balearics has to offer, from La Roca to Amanece en Carnaval to Subzhero, bringing beats so hot they need oven gloves.

As his name suggests, Tides brings the sun, sea and sand spirit to all his crowd-pleasing performances, pizzazz guaranteed when holding down pool parties, primetime hotspots and wherever there are grooves and good times to be had. When the vibes are high, Tides will become your #1.

Short Bio

Turn up your stereo to the sound of Tides, the Argentina-born, Spain-based DJ and producer found closing out volume 7 of Clarisse's EP series with his classy track 'Balsamic'. Resident at Mallorca's world famous BCM venue, Tides continues onwards and upwards through the best spots the Balearics has offer, from La Roca to Amanece en Carnaval to Subzhero. Whether holding down pool parties or primetime hotspots, Tides has the tools to make waves wherever there are grooves and good times to be had.